

Not My Sister!

Larry Mortensen

In an effort to save his ranch, Sherman O'Neil signs a lease with an oil company for them to drill. Being a hands-on type of person, he travels from his Wyoming ranch to Salt Lake City and then to Houston, Texas to learn more about the oil industry. He meets a lady, Lenora Smithson in Houston, who owns a pipeline supply company. The sparks immediately fly, until he sees her kissing another woman. A mistaken identity almost ends the romance before it gets started. Can a preconceived misconception be corrected and how will it be resolved?
