

Not Talented in Hollywood

Leonie Gant

Not all choices made are the right ones. As personal assistant to the powerful and self-absorbed, Trudie Eyre has seen her fair share of drama, but she didn't expect to find it in a community theater. Discovering the body of a famous award-winning director, who has fallen far from the heady heights of Hollywood, means Trudie is once again pulled into the murky world of celebrity, where not everything is as it seems.
