

Now at the Cottage We Forget to Count the Hours : A Series of Reflections That You May Follow or Skip Through at Your Own Pace

Ruby Knecht

NOW at the Cottage We Forget to Count the Hours is a non-fictional story, a sixty-year collection of journal notes. Ruby outlines her beginnings in Ohio and moving to Canada to own and operate vacation lodges in the remote bush of Canada. It relates informative and heartfelt memories of a family living continually interdependent with each other and with nature. It will entertain readers who have only dreamed, for years, of an independent lifestyle. It will inspire you to step outside the normal and follow your own desires, and to enjoy the best that is to come.
