My heart bounded at the information it certainly was not any clue to my own parentage, but it was an object of my solicitude, and connected with the welfare of Fleta. If I recollect right, observed I, there are some curious passages in the life of Sir Henry? Nothing very particular, observed the agent, looking out of the window. I thought that he had disappeared for some time. Disappeared! he certainly did not live in Ireland, because he had quarrelled with his brother. He lived in England until his brothers death. How did his brother die, sir? Killed by a fall when hunting, replied the agent. He was attempting to clear a stone wall, the horse fell back on him, and dislocated his spine. I was on the spot when the accident happened. I recollected the imperfect communication of Fleta, who had heard the gipsy say that he was dead and also the word horse made use of, and I now felt convinced that I had found out Melchior. Sir Henry, if I recollect right, has no family, observed I. No and I am afraid there is but little chance. Had the late baronet, his elder brother, any family? What, Sir William? No or Sir Henry would not have come into the title. He might have had daughters, replied I. Very true now I think of it, there was a girl, who died when young. Is the widow of Sir William alive? Yes and a very fine woman she is but she has left Ireland since her husbands death. I did not venture to ask any more questions. O...
